Preliminary Project Description	AI study assistant designed to help students improve learning efficiency through intelligent academic support. The system will provide AI chatbot assistance, smart note summarization, quiz generation, personalized study planning, and recommendation systems to create a more interactive and productive learning environment.
Why AI is Needed in the Project	Artificial Intelligence is required to provide intelligent and personalized learning support. AI will help generate summaries from study materials, answer academic questions through chatbot interaction, create quizzes automatically, recommend study topics based on user activity, and improve productivity through smart automation. Traditional systems lack intelligent interaction and personalized academic assistance.
Initial Technology Stack	Frontend: React.js, Tailwind CSS Backend: Node.js, Express.js Database: MongoDB Atlas AI Tools: Gemini API / OpenAI API Authentication: JWT, bcrypt Deployment: Vercel, Render
Similar Existing Systems/Research	ChatGPT, Google Gemini, Notion AI, Quizlet AI, Khan Academy AI Tutor, Grammarly AI
